

Welcome!

We're so happy that you're here, and that you're interested in being part of LGBT YouthLine's BIPOC 2SLGBTQ+ Service Provider Gathering!

This Gathering is a 4-day online opportunity for Black, Indigenous and People of Colour 2SLGBTQ+ service providers who support 2SLGBTQ+ youth to come together and build connections and community, while engaging in deeper conversations around systemic challenges and different futures.

Please note that this Gathering is only open to 2SLGBTQ+ service providers who are Black, Indigenous and/or People of Colour.

In this application survey, you will be asked eligibility questions, along with a series of general questions about your experiences and interests that will help us get to know you a bit better.

Application deadline is Sunday April 3rd, 2022! If you need more time or other accommodations, please reach out.

For more information about the Gatherings, including eligibility, visit our website. For any questions or access needs/supports, please reach out: community@youthline.ca

Looking forward to connecting!

- Hayley (on behalf of LGBT YouthLine)

Eligibility Question 3

 8. Do you work directly with 2SLGBTQ+ youth as a staff person or volunteer of an organization?

Organizations include, but are not limited to: not-for-profit, healthcare, social work, youth work, harm reduction, shelter systems. Supporting 2SLGBTQ+ youth DOES NOT need to be the primary mandate of the role OR organization.

Here are some examples:

- a counsellor who works at a clinic, and has a handful of 2SLGBTQ+ youth clients;
- a harm reduction worker who supports 2SLGBTQ+ youth through their outreach work;
- a youth worker who holds BIPOC-only 2SLGBTQ+ drop-in sessions every other week;
- a nurse who works at a community health care center and supports 2SLGBTQ+ youth clients; and
- an artist who works at a community artists' co-op and hosts online art-making workshops for gender diverse youth.

If necessary, select Other to explain.

- Yes, I work directly with 2SLGBTQ+ youth as a staff person or volunteer of an organization.
- No, I do not work directly with 2SLGBTQ+ youth as a staff person or volunteer of an organization.
- Other (please specify)
